

Team 3.2 | CSCI 5100 F22 | Assessment rubric (Individual)

Team Presentation
Excellent	A+ A A-	Content <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ The information adds a distinct section that helps to build the team presentation and make it cohesive. ■ The material presents reliable facts. ■ The content is clear, relevant to the audience, and makes complicated concepts easier to grasp. ■ The opening captures attention. ■ The sources are presented properly in IEEE style, are reliable, and the reflection shows critical thinking. Delivery <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ The speaker avoids reading or memorizing and talks as if speaking with a friend. ■ The speaker maintains good eye contact.
Good	B+ B B-
Insufficient	F

We will reduce grades when submissions are incomplete, or do not meet technical or academic standards; for example:

- Items are not submitted in the form assigned, are not all provided, or the overall presentation is more or less than the required time
- Portions show insufficient originality (e.g., overuses words or concepts of others)

The only submission considered will be the one identified by all group members as the group submission
Submissions after the deadline will not be opened for grading.